Simple Steps to choose your plan

1. Choose your Monthly Benefit

Based on the family's needs decide upon the monthly benefit which you want to protect for your family.

What is Income Replacement?

Under this plan, on pre-mature death, the chosen monthly benefit is paid every month for the remaining policy term or minimum of 5 years. The amount increases at 5% every year to take care of rising cost of living.

2. Choose the Policy Term (PT)

Policy Term is the period during which you get the benefits of life insurance protection.

3. Decide on the Premium Paying Term (PPT)

It is the period during which you pay the premiums. Based on the stability of your current income stream you choose the PPT. All premiums are paid in annual mode.

4. Calculation of premium payable

Premium is the amount you have to pay to avail your life Insurance and is calculated based on your age, gender, monthly benefit chosen, policy term, premium paying term and tobacco consumption status (for monthly benefit amount of Rs. 25,000 and above).

5. Choose your nominee

Nominee is the person nominated by the policy holder to receive the proceeds of the policy in case of the policy holder's death.

6. Free look period

After you receive your policy, please go through it carefully to check the coverage amount, policy specifications and the obligations by Edelweiss Tokio Life Insurance are what you expected them to be. If the terms and conditions are not as per your expectations, then you can return the policy within 15 days of receiving your policy, stating the reason for your objection. Premium paid will be refunded after deducting stamp duty, cost of medical expenses.

Statutory Information

Suicide Claim provisions: If the Life Assured, whether sane or insane, commits suicide, within one year from the date of issuance or date of revival, then the policy shall be void.

Grace period for non-forfeiture provisions: 30 days

The policy will remain in force during the grace period. If any premium remains unpaid at the end of the grace period, the policy shall lapse. The policy benefit thereafter would have no further value except as provided under the non- forfeiture provisions.

Nomination requirements and Assignment

Nomination: Nomination is compulsory. The nominee/s shall be a person/s nominated by the member in accordance with the provisions of section (39) of the Insurance Act 1938 to receive the benefits under the scheme in the event of his/her death.

Beneficiary would be the nominee as given by the policyholder. In case the nominee is a minor then the appointee would be the beneficiary. If the nominee has died / is not alive then the legal heir of the policyholder would be the beneficiary.

Assignment: Assignment is allowed. Assignee/s shall be a person/s to whom the policy is assigned by the policyholder in accordance with the provision of section (38) of the Insurance Act 1938 to transfer all the equities and liabilities to which policy holder was subject to at the date of assignment.

After assignment, assignee may institute any proceedings in relation to the policy without obtaining the consent of the policyholder or making him the party to such proceedings.

Revival: If premiums are not paid within the period of grace the policy lapses. The policy may be revived for full benefits within two years from the date of the first unpaid premium. The revival will be considered on receipt of written application from the policyholder along with the proof of continued insurability of Life Assured and on payment of all overdue premiums with interest. The revival will be effected on company's discretion and subject to such conditions as the company in its discretion may decide. The interest will be charged at a rate declared by the company from time to time.

Prohibition of Rebate: (SECTION 41 OF INSURANCE ACT 1938) No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take out or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate except one such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectus or tables of the Insurer. Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

Non Disclosure Clause: (SECTION 45 OF INSURANCE ACT 1938) No policy of life insurance shall after the expiry of two years from the date on which it was effected, be called in question by an insurer on the ground that statement made in the proposal for insurance or in any report of a medical officer, or referee, or friend of the insured, or in any other document leading to the issue of the policy, was inaccurate or false, unless the insurer shows that such statement was on a material matter or suppressed facts which it was material to disclose and that it was fraudulently made by the policyholder and that the policyholder knew at the time of making it that the statement was false or that it suppressed facts which it was material to disclose. Provided that nothing in this Section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the Life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal

Service Tax: As per Service Tax law, service tax will be levied on the policy holder.
